LEARN ABOUT NATIVE GARDENING AT MENLO PARK'S FREE WATER EFFICIENT LANDSCAPING CLASS

Menlo Park, CA – This spring, the City of Menlo Park and the Bay Area Water Supply and Conservation Agency (BAWSCA) are co-sponsoring a FREE water efficient landscaping class titled “Use of California Native Plants in the Landscape” on March 10th. At this workshop, attendees will learn how to beautify their garden while making it more water-efficient. This workshop will benefit many homeowners since lawns and gardens consume almost half the total water use of an average home.

Registration is required. Class size is limited. To register for this or another FREE landscaping class, please contact BAWSCA at (650) 349-3000. Be certain to specify the class date, time and location and provide your name address and telephone number. Online registration is also available at www.bawsca.org/classes. Please call BAWSCA at (650) 349-3000 or visit www.bawsca.org for further class details.
