

Scott Westerfeld and Sarah Rees Brennan

Thursday, October 8, 2009 - 7:00 p.m.

at the Menlo Park Library, 800 Alma St., Menlo Park

One night. Two authors. Two fantastic novels.

Don't miss bestselling author Scott Westerfeld and debut author Sarah Rees Brennan as they present their newest works of fantasy.

Leviathan by Scott Westerfeld

Leviathan is the first in a brand new trilogy that reimagines history. On the eve of World War I, the machine-loving Austro-Hungarians and Germans have their big steam-powered Clankers. Inspired by Darwin, the British have fabricated animals into warships. Their mothership, Leviathan, is a marvelous whale-dirigible.

The Demon's Lexicon by Sarah Rees Brennan

The Demon's Lexicon is the tale of two of two brothers—Demon Slayers both. Sixteen-year-old Nick and older brother Alan have always been on the run from the deadly magicians who use demons to work their magic. They trust only each other. So things get very scary when Nick begins to suspect that everything Alan has told him about their past is a complete lie.
