CITY AUCTION SET FOR SATURDAY, MAY 8, 2004

Over 100 bikes in all shapes and sizes will go to the highest bidder at the Annual City Auction to be held on Saturday, May 8. The event takes place at the former Maintenance Facility located on Civic Center Parkway just east of Nicollet Avenue. Review of materials begins at 9 a.m. with the live auction starting at 10 a.m.

Along with bikes, various items collected by the Burnsville Police Department along with surplus items no longer of use to the City will also be available. Items involved in the auction include vehicles, car stereos, binoculars, clothing, sporting goods, motorcycle helmets, VHS movies, CD's, office equipment, computers and various other assorted items.

Funds from the auction are deposited into the general fund and are used to offset property tax bills. Recent auctions have raised as much as $12,000 to $15,000 annually.
