FREE BURNSVILLE HOME REMODELING FAIR SET FOR SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 4

City and Chamber of Commerce partner on annual resource fair

Information about adding a deck, replacing windows, building a retaining wall or any other home improvement project is in ample supply at the Burnsville Home Remodeling Fair. The eighth annual event, a cooperative venture between the City of Burnsville and Burnsville Chamber of Commerce, is set for Saturday, February 4 from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. The event will be held at the Burnsville Northwest Athletic Club, 14600 Burnhaven Drive. The event is free and open to the public.

The Home Remodeling Fair is a great way to get ideas for remodeling projects and get answers to remodeling questions. Over 50 local vendors will have their products and services on display including booths on deck/porch construction; siding and windows; kitchen cabinet refinishing; lighting; driveways; remodeling; landscaping; retaining walls; security systems; rehab loans and more. City Building Inspectors will also be available to answer questions. A representative from the Department of Commerce will be available to answer questions concerning residential contractors.

Refreshments are provided and a drawing will be held for a $500 gift certificate to Home Depot.

In addition, a series of free seminars and demonstrations on a variety of topics will be held throughout the fair. These include:
