MAYOR KAUTZ RELEASED FROM HOSPITAL, EXPECTS TO RESUME DUTIES SOON

Burnsville Mayor Elizabeth Kautz was released from Hennepin County Medical Center on Monday, March 6. The Mayor was admitted to the hospital on Saturday, March 4 after experiencing an accident at the Buck Hill Ski Area in Burnsville. The accident happened during the Eighth Annual Subway Bedrace for Bridging fundraising event. Bridging is an organization that provides household goods and furniture for people in transition.

The Mayor received treatment for cracked ribs and a collapsed lung. The Mayor reports that she is sore but she does expect to resume her busy schedule as soon as possible.

With news of the accident, many friends and media are attempting to contact the Mayor in the hospital to offer their well wishes and concern for her health. Flowers and cards may be sent to Burnsville City Hall on Tuesday, March 7 or her home address starting Wednesday, March 8.
