Mayors and county officials, as well as municipal police, fire and EMT personnel, have been invited to remember those who lost their lives on September 11.

“Our memorial service ceremony is simply a small expression of our community’s deep appreciation for the lives that were lost on September 11,” said Passaic County Freeholder Director Tahesha Way.

“Words alone cannot fully convey our sincere gratitude for the lives of those who have bravely defended our nation. It is our hope that our County’s 9/11 Memorial Service will effectively honor the remarkable sacrifices of our country’s most cherished men and women.”
