Somerset County Towns to Share in State Aid for Road Projects

Twenty municipal road projects in Somerset County will benefit from state aid from the New Jersey Department of Transportation (NJDOT).

The Somerset County projects total $3.935 million of the approximately $104 million awarded by the NJDOT to communities statewide. The funding comes from the New Jersey Transportation Trust Fund.

“This is very welcome aid to our municipalities, especially in these difficult economic times,” said Freeholder Peter S. Palmer, a member of the North Jersey Transportation Planning Authority, which makes recommendations on the funding awards. “The money not only will provide necessary improvements to local roads but also will create much-needed construction jobs.”

The projects and amounts for Somerset County’s municipalities include:
