
National Threat Assessments

On December 21st, the Homeland Security threat condition was raised from yellow (“elevated”) to orange (“high”). Threat Conditions indicate the degree of risk of a terrorist act -- with risk denoting both probability and gravity.