

St. Cloud Police and FBI: Bank Robbery

St. Cloud Police along with the FBI are investigating a second bank robbery in downtown St. Cloud, Tuesday morning. At 9:30 AM, on June 8, 2004, police received a 9-1-1 call from Liberty Savings Bank, reporting a bank robbery. The lone, African-American male in his early twenties, entered the bank and approached tellers, demanding money. No gun was displayed. Upon receiving an undisclosed amount of money, the suspect then left the bank and authorities weren't sure if he continued walking or got into a vehicle.

The suspect is further described as being approximately 5'7" to 5'8", 150# to 160#, wearing dark pants, a plain black sweatshirt. He had what looked like black and white bandannas tied around his head. No customers or bank employees were injured in the robbery
