The Sherburne County Sheriff's Department is seeking assistance from the public in identifying three individuals who committed an armed robbery. Three male suspects entered the Santiago Country Store at closing time or about 10 p.m. on Friday, March 7. At least one of the suspects was armed and brandished a gun, demanding the cashier give them cash. The suspects took the cash drawer from the cash register and fled the scene. Larger pictures of these individuals can be seen on our web site. Please see the address above.
